

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Contact Details available at home.alumnicorps.org/contact

Introduction

Princeton Project 55, Inc. dba Princeton AlumniCorps is committed to protecting your personal information, being transparent about what data we hold and giving you control over how we use it.

The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to give you a clear explanation about how we use the information we collect from you.

If you would like to make changes to your contact information, please fill out this form:

About us

Princeton Project 55, Inc. dba Princeton AlumniCorps, is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) registered in the District of Columbia. Our EIN is 52-1647841.

How do we collect personal information?

We collect your information when you interact with us. This could include making a donation online, by phone, or in person, or when you sign up to receive updates from us by email and other digital channels. On occasion, we also update information as provided by Princeton University Alumni to the University's database.

What information do we collect from you?

We only collect the information that's necessary to carry on our business. Generally, this includes:

- Prefix and name
- Email address
- Contact phone number(s)
- Payment card information (this information is not kept in our database).
- Mailing and Billing address(es)

If, in the past, you applied for a Project 55 Fellowship, an ARC Innovator project, or a spot in our Emerging Leaders program, we may have also collected information for application purposes only.

This includes:

- Education background
- Professional & volunteer experience
- Demographic information such as gender, age, and ethnic/cultural background. This is used solely in aggregate form for reporting on diversity to funders.

This information is not kept in our database.

For donors, we sometimes use service providers that combine information you have given to us with information from publicly available sources. We may also update inaccurate data if the information is available.

Why do we collect this information and what do we do with it?

We will use your information:

- Keep you up-to-date about recent news, talks, workshops and other events;
- To help you engage with other individuals with similar interests to help mobilize people, organizations, and networks for public good;
- To send information about how you can support Princeton AlumniCorps

Where is your information stored?

We're committed to protecting your personal information. We adopt robust and appropriate technologies and policies to protect it from unauthorized access and improper use. In addition, whenever we transfer your personal data out of our secure database, we ensure a similar degree of protection.

How long do we keep your data?

We will keep your information only for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy and to fulfill our legal obligations. We will not keep more information than we need.

Is personal information shared with any third parties?

Princeton Project 55, Inc. dba Princeton AlumniCorps will never share, sell, rent or trade your personal information to any third parties for marketing purposes without your prior consent.

Changes to this Privacy Policy and your duty to inform us of changes

We may make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will post any changes to our site, or notify you of any material changes by e-mail.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us by updating your information HERE or contacting us via the contact details at the top of this Privacy Policy.